1 GET GREAT SKIN

Start a skin-care routine at least six months in advance to reduce breakouts, lighten dark spots and reduce fine lines. Ling Chan, skin-care guru to the stars, recommends applying a therapeutic moisturizing facial mask for seven days prior to the wedding to help hydrate and prevent any blemishes.

2 BRIGHTEN YOUR SMILE

Nothing says confident bride like a big, bright grin, so get your pearly whites in tip-top shape by seeing your dentist for laser whitening or by trying Rembrandt 2 Hour Whitening kit at home. P.S. A white smile also makes you look years younger!

3 FAKE A FLAWLESS FACE

Applying a primer under foundation is a must for a perfect complexion. Kimara Anhalt Pore Perfecting Face Primer evens skin tone, minimizes pores and reduces shine all day long.

4 SPORT SHINY HAIR

Paul Labrecque, top celebrity stylist, says, "Always use a leave-in hydrating treatment before styling with a straightening or curling iron to lock in moisture." Spritz styled hair with a high-gloss finishing spray to eliminate frizz.

5 PUMP UP YOUR POUT

"Start by exfoliating and hydrating lips, line and fill them in with a long-wearing lip liner, apply two coats of lipstick (blot with a tissue in between applications) and finish with a gloss for extra shine," says Rick DiCecca, Estée Lauder Global Makeup Stylist.

6 DEFINE YOUR BROWS

Transform your face with perfectly shaped brows. A pro—like one at a Benefit Cosmetics Brow Bar—can help you find the arch that flatters you best. On the day of, use a brow pencil to fill in sparse areas and set brows with a few strokes of clear mascara.

7 BRONZE GODDESS

To sculpt the face and enhance radiance, bronzer is your best bet. Tony LoSavio, director of Makeup Artistry for Chanel, recommends a light dusting of powder on forehead, cheeks and chin (spots where the sun naturally hits) for a sun-kissed glow.

Create a one-of-a-kind wedding-day fragrance at Memoire Liquide Bespoke Perfumery in New York and Los Angeles—include your favorite floral notes or the ones in your bouquet—for a signature scent that is uniquely yours.
