Mischa's relapse drama?

Barely a year after she was released from a psychiatric hospital, Mischa Barton is looking ragged again, and friends fear that she's on a downward spiral and is partying again. The former O.C. star has been spending much of the summer in London, but getting away from the drama of Hollywood hasn't seemed to help her any. And hanging out with notorious party girl Amy Winehouse and staying out late at clubs, life in the fast lane seems to have taken a toll on Mischa, 24. "She has little or no career left and is running out of money," a friend says. "She went to London to regroup and escape the drama, but it seemed to have followed her there — and she looks awful. Yet she is in awe of Amy and her lifestyle."

Nicole and Joel fight over money

An argument between Nicole Richie and Joel Madden got so bad that Nicole briefly called off their engagement! According to a friend, Nicole, 28, is a spendthrift, while Joel, 31, can be a penny-pincher, and their differences finally erupted in a financial showdown that endangered their future together. "Nicole makes her own money, and she spends her own money," the insider explains. "Joel freaked out when she came home with a pair of $2,500 shoes, and it caused a huge fight." The friend reveals that Nicole dramatically took off her engagement ring as they sorted through the issues. "They worked it out, but it wasn't that easy," the friend says.

"Nicole isn't used to being told what to do, and she has definitely never been on a budget!" says a friend.
