

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2010

Perfect in Pink

Because October is Breast Cancer Awareness month I thought we'd share a few great beauty and glamour products that give portions of their proceeds to help fund cancer research. All these items are perfect for the bride-to-be, bride or really any beauty and health conscious gal.

For a More Beautiful You

Lips:

Kimara Ahnert Pucker Pink Ribbon Lipstick

In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, renowned makeup artist Kimara Ahnert, has designed Pucker Pink Ribbon Lipstick - a new shade added to the collection to help in the fight against breast cancer. Purchase this and 15% of proceeds will be donated to the Libby Ross Foundation to help fund programs for prevention, support and research. Pucker Pink Ribbon's versatile shade allows any woman, patient, survivor, or friend to look her best while at the same time showing support for a worthy cause.

Price: $24.00 and is available year round at www.kimara.com

FOLLOWERS

 Follow
with Google Friend Connect

For over 22 years, ChicagoStyle Weddings Magazine & Website has provided brides with comprehensive wedding planning information and interactive tools to assist you in organizing your wedding and help you select the professional wedding vendor that is just right for you and your budget.

ChicagoStyle Weddings provides you with all the necessary resources that are ultimately focused on the same goal - making it easier to plan your dream wedding. ChicagoStyle Weddings Magazine & Website provides...Read more

VIEW MY COMPLETE PROFILE

NETWORKED BLOGS

